

Research seminars autumn 2015

Welcome to a series of research seminars on issues important for the future of humanity! The seminars are usually on Wednesdays but please check the website for more information and updates.

September 2nd | 10.00–12.00

Malcolm Fairbrother: Elites, democracy and the rise of globalization

September 16th | 10.00–12.00

Shlomi Segall: Should egalitarians care about chances?

September 30th | 10.00–12.00

Graham Oddie: What's so good about being happy?

October 7th | 10.00–12.00

Anders Sandberg: The survival curve of our species: Handling global catastrophic and existential risks

October 14th | 10.00–12.00

Åsa Knaggård: Stakeholder interaction - what do we mean and how can we do it?

November 4th | 13.00–15.00 OBS! Afternoon

Tobias Hübinette: The modern history of Swedish whiteness and Swedish race thinking

November 18th | 10.00–12.00

Jules Holroyd: TBA

November 25th | 10.00–12.00

Sophie Nachemson-Ekwall: TBA

December 1st | 10.00–12.00 OBS! Monday

Thomas Hylland Eriksen: Overheating: Understanding Accelerated Change

December 2nd | 10.00–12.00

Rae Langton: TBA

December 9th | 10.00–12.00

Stefan Jonsson: What competition brings

December 15th | 10.00–12.00 OBS! Tuesday

Kasper Lippert-Rasmussen: Affirmative action and relational egalitarianism

Rae Langton

Shlomi Segall

Sophie Nachemson-Ekwall

Graham Oddie

The seminars are free of charge and take place at the Institute, Holländargatan 13 in Stockholm. Subway: Hötorget. Walking distance from the Central station. No registration is required.